The Adams in 2007

The Adams' enjoyed a pleasant 2007, with Bobby and Kim more and more experiencing the lifestyle of "empty nesters." Bobby & Kim made trips in March and in September to Virginia this year to visit Shannon and Jason. On the second trip Bobby's mom, Mimi, and Nathan were also able to go with us. The Adams' are active in their church, ParkwayHills, and are leaders in their Bible study group.

Kim made another out-of-state trip in July. Kim, Mimi, Bobby's three sisters, two of his aunts, and one of his cousins took a road trip to the Grand Canyon. This was the third road trip that the group has taken in the past three years. One could say that this has become a tradition. On December 9, Bobby completed his eighth marathon. He set a personal record, completing White Rock in 3:48:32.

Shannon and Jason Morgan move to San Diego

Shannon and Jason moved from Virginia to San Diego in late November. Jason is now a lieutenant assigned to the USS Ronald Reagan as a C-2A pilot. Fortunately, they were able to time their move so that they could be in the Dallas area during Thanksgiving. Shannon began a new job in the San Diego area, as Store

Manager/Buyer for a shop called Blue Jeans and Bikinis.

Nathan enjoys Baylor in Great Britain

Nathan had a busy summer between his sophomore and junior years taking classes through Baylor in Great Britain. He spent most of the time in London, but was also able to make trips to Italy and Ireland. He took a course in British Literature and a course in Comparative Health Care (he is an economics major). Nathan continues to do well at Baylor and is enjoying his time there.
