"An angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." Matthew 1:20-21

God has truly blessed us this year. Even though our children now live in other states, we were still able to visit with them often through travel in both directions.

Shannon and Jason have been in Pensacola since last December, where Jason is an instructor for navigators on the T-6A and Shannon keeps busy with active one-year-old Harper. Nathan took a month-long backpacking trip in SE Asia during the summer and then moved to Atlanta. He is now in graduate school at Emory University, where he majors in Computer Science. Kim remains involved in Spark Ministry (www.sparkministry.org), and Bobby is still at AT&T.

We pray that your Christmas season is filled with God's blessings as we celebrate our Savior's birth. Have a happy, healthy and prosperous 2012!

*Love,
Bobby + Kim*
